The evening discussions will focus on the interview process, first year survival skills, differences within urban, suburban, and rural districts, and a presentation by Kathryn Simons discussing teaching trauma impacted students. This will be an interactive evening and a great opportunity for all preservice teachers across the state.

Location: Albany Convention Center, 55 Eagle Street, Albany, NY 12207

Time: 4:30-7:30 PM Registration Fee is $35*

*Attendees will receive:

- Light dinner served
- One day of free attendance to 2019 NYSCC Conference
- 1 year membership to:
 - NYSCSS New York State Council for Social Studies
 - CDCSS Capital District Council for Social Studies

Registration information:

Preservice teachers will be able to register for the annual convention at a discounted rate of $35.00, which includes the March 6th preservice event (light dinner, discussions, presentation, practice interviews) and one day of conference attendance (Thursday, Friday or Saturday-March 6-9, 2019).

For preservice teachers to take advantage of this great discount, they need to be students in undergraduate, or graduate programs, and not employed with a district.

Registration is currently open at <http://www.nyscss.wildapricot.org/page-1862798>. Preservice teachers need to enter preservice2019 as the code (no spaces).
